of the European Society for Analytic Philosophy (ESAP) the Munich Center for Mathematical Philosophy (MCMP) as local host is looking for committed

EVENTMANAGER student assistants (m/f) from all disciplines

The MCMP stands for high-level research in the field of mathematical philosophy and philosophy of science. It encompasses the Chair of Logic and Philosophy of Language and the Chair of Philosophy of Science and is part of the Faculty of Philosophy, Philosophy of Science and Study of Religion at LMU Munich.

We need you for the immediate preparations before and during the congress (after the end of summer term) in particular for congress preparation, function and on-site support of national and international participants, as well as technical and logistical tasks. Proficiency in English is required. Detailed information about the congress is available on the congress' website: <http://analyticphilosophy.eu/ecap9/>

In addition to the unique opportunity to get familiar with leading international researcher, this is your chance to prove competence and dedication. The cooperation is without pay, but does include (for all team members):

- Free attendance of the conference in general and to certain talks in particular (meals included)
- Invitation to the Conference Reception, the City Hall Reception and the Conference Dinner
- Certificate of Attendance and Reference of Cooperation
